

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Only 30 women out of 300 eligible to vote in Middlebury cast their ballot.

One waitress in the Hotel Berwick at Rutland received a tip in the form of a thrift stamp recently.

Rev. J. Lambert Alexander began his labors Sunday as pastor of the Congregational church in Bradford.

The blocks in Brandon which were practically destroyed by fire recently will be razed and rebuilt in the spring.

Former Assistant Judge F. M. Plumley of Rutland is ill at the hospital in that city and his wife is quite ill at the home of her sister in the same place.

Rev. E. N. Rosier preached his farewell sermon in the Congregational and Methodist churches in Salisbury last Sunday and has gone to Hymera, Ind., where he will preach.

Corp. Raymond Pease of Lyndonville, who was severely wounded in action Feb. 28 in France, for three years was employed as machine operator in the office of the Lyndonville Union-Journal.

The "No" majority in Brattleboro this year was the largest in the history of the town, the vote being Yes 100, No 674. Out of 430 eligible women, about 200 voted. The tax rate is 46 cents, an increase of one cent.

Fred L. Markham, a dope fiend, who sought drugs in Ludlow and in Rutland, and then wanted to take treatment at the state hospital in Waterbury, escaped from a deputy sheriff in the Burlington station, stepping out of a window and disappearing. A wide search has so far been without result.

Henry Mathers, 92 years old, who lives with his daughter, Mrs. Frank McGill, in Kirby, this winter has sawed and split the wood for three fires, taking most of it when it was chiseled or longer. He does it from choice and not from necessity. He says he feels better and sleeps better for the exercise.

A soldier at Fort Ethan Allen, who was soon to have been transferred to another branch of the service, lost the thumb and a portion of his left hand Tuesday, when, as he was examining a piece of ordnance, and explosion occurred. He was in the basement of the headquarters building and the bullet went through two floors above and the roof.

Addison G. Stone, one of Rutland county's best known lawyers, dropped dead while addressing a patriotic meeting in connection with the election in Wallingford. He would have been 69 years old this month. He received his education in the common schools of Wallingford, studied law in Washington, D. C., practiced law in Wallingford and Richmond, Mich., and returned to Wallingford in 1884. He was a Republican in politics and represented Wallingford in the legislature in 1894 and in 1910. He was a 32nd degree Mason, an Odd Fellow, a Bhekah and was past grand dictator of Vermont Knights of Honor.

Vermont Engineers to Meet.

The sixth annual meeting of the Vermont Society of Engineers will be held March 12 at the Hotel Vermont, Burlington, the sessions opening at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The meeting will open with a business session followed by the reports of officers and the annual election. After this the reports of the standing committees will be heard.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be a continuation of the reports of the standing committees, followed by a discussion of the various papers.

The afternoon's session will close after an address by Captain Broad of Northfield.

In the evening a banquet will be served at 6:30 and at 8 p. m. Charles H. Nichols of New York will give an address on "Modern Fireproof Buildings." Following this, the annual address of the president will be given.

The officers of the association are: President, Prof. A. E. Winslow of Northfield; first vice-president, Bill Hayward of Montpelier; second vice-president, H. F. Purington of Burlington; secretary and treasurer, G. A. Reed of Montpelier. The directors are Dean J. W. Votey of the University of Vermont, F. W. Denison of St. Albans and E. D. Blackwell of Brandon.

Voted in His 100th Year.

P. J. Griffin of Burlington, who will reach the century mark this month, and who voted Tuesday, is without doubt the oldest voter in the city and may be the oldest voter in the state.

Mr. Griffin voted as he has done for over half a century, the straight Democratic ticket, and voted in the same ward in which he has voted for over 60 years.

Mr. Griffin came to Burlington many years ago and now, within halting distance of the 100 year mark, is in fine health for a man of his years. He describes his general health as "good," and says he is working out of door life which he has been in for many years. His appearance is that of a man about 75 or younger and one would hardly believe that in a few days he will have reached the age of 100.

ARMENIAN RELIEF DRIVE

Will Be Conducted in Vermont From March 10 to 17.

The state drive for funds to aid the American committee for Armenian relief will take place during the week of March 10 to 17. The following are only a few of the facts that caused President Wilson to make his recent strong appeal to the American people for financial help.

"At least 1,000,000 Armenians and Syrians in Turkey have perished during the past two years from massacre, deportation, exposure, starvation, disease. Over 2,000,000 are now homeless and in dire distress. Thousands of Greeks deported from the seacoast of Asia Minor are now in danger of starving. Four hundred thousand of those in need are orphans. Little children scarcely able to feed themselves live absolutely alone in deserted homes. Seventy-five thousand children under 12 years of age were starving in Syria and the Lebanon home. Sufferers in the Lebanon district recently were dying at the rate of 1,000 a day. Five hundred thousand refugees have fled from Turkish dominions and in their temporary homes cry for help. Relief work still goes on in Turkey uninterrupted by break of diplomatic relations. It is freely administered to Persia, the Caucasus and elsewhere. But only by the agents of the American committee, as the Red Cross is not allowed behind the Turkish lines."

Come On, Get in Line

MAY MAKE WINOOSKI DRY.

Government May Take a Hand and Close the Saloons.

The United States government may take action which will overcome the license vote in Colchester and mean that Winoski shall be without saloons next year.

The report spread yesterday that the government considered action on the ground of protecting the interests of the soldiers at the front and caused a panic among the liquor interests of the town. The situation, with Burlington going dry and the consequent increase of business for Winoski's saloons, it was feared might move the U. S. officials to action which they had not heretofore considered necessary.

Winoski is well within the five mile limits from Fort Ethan Allen where thousands of soldiers are quartered. That the government has full authority to act at any time it considers it necessary there is no question.

The situation in Plattsburg last fall where the government closed the saloons because of the presence of the officers' training camp there was also recalled yesterday.

A new regiment of cavalry is in process of formation at the fort and new men are arriving almost daily. With the coming of spring it is expected that the number of men at the post will approach the eight or nine thousand quartered there last year.

Besides this the matter of establishing
